

AIM4University

with the University of Surrey

Aim high and stand out in your university application.

SURREY >>> SCHOLARS

Learn. Aspire. Succeed.

The University of Surrey invites you to take part on a sustained programme providing advice, information and mentoring in support of your UCAS application.

AIM4University is FREE of charge, subject to selection criteria*, with exclusive online and on campus opportunities available.

**Please see eligibility criteria on the reverse.*

What is AIM4University?

AIM4University offers advice, information and mentoring that is impartial and tailored to your queries. The programme allows you to select and connect with a current University of Surrey student who has similar or shared experiences to you. This can be similarities between course of study, hobbies and and/or culture.

You will also be invited to exclusive webinars with topics including 'Tips for Personal Statement Writing', 'Applying for UK Student Finance' and 'Living at University'. In addition, you will be invited to book onto one of two exclusive campus visits where you can meet with our team to discuss in confidence personal circumstances and available provision to maximise your university experience.

When?

The programme launches online from Monday 26 September. Campus visits are scheduled to take place on Wednesday 26 October and Saturday 29 October.

What is included?

There are 4 ways in which you can access AIM4University:

- Online mentoring
- Live webinars and online events
- Access to pre recorded and on demand content.
- Invitations to exclusive campus visits with travel bursary provided.
